

LOCAL NEWS

M. J. Dixon is confined to his room this week.

Worth Bryant, of Cookeville, is here attending Criminal court.

Miss Nell Robbins has recovered from an attack of scarlet fever.

The crowd in town Monday numbered around the thousand mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Dennis spent Sunday in the country the guest of relatives.

J. W. Eckles, of Coalmont, Tenn., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Marybelle Stafford.

Mrs. Lizzie Bilbry is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Birdwell, near Whitleyville, this week.

Rev. Templeton held two interesting services at the Christian church Sunday, preaching to large and attentive audiences.

LOST—One pocket size day book, between Camp ground meeting house 3rd district, and Gainesboro, on Friday, Nov. 3rd. Finder please return to Sentinel office, or W. A. Overton.

After a week's suspension, the Gainesboro High School reopened Monday. The school was suspended by the school board to prevent the spread of scarlet fever, to which some of the pupils had been exposed.

A growing bank account gives one confidence in himself, in his ability to "match wits" with the other fellow and win. With our Bank Account Plan you start with one dollar or more and add to it as you can.—Bank of Gainesboro.

Miss Sissie Morgan, is visiting friends in Nashville.

Dan Phillips, representing Keith Simmons & Co., was here Monday.

Captain John L. Quarles, of Cookeville, was in town first of the week.

Mrs. Clay Reeves, is visiting relatives in Nashville and Clarksville this week.

Jas. N. Cox, Frank Richmond and Walter Carlen, of Cookeville, attended the speaking Monday.

L. S. Botts, of Whitleyville, was in Gainesboro Saturday enroute home from Lebanon, where he is attending law school.

Rev. Gentry delivered two interesting sermons at the Methodist church Sunday. He preaches here the first and third Sunday's. The public is cordial invited to attend.

Who banks the money you work so hard to get? You may be sure it reaches the bank. Why not open an account with us and do your own banking.—Bank of Gainesboro.

J. M. Morgan, of route 2 was in town Tuesday and voted. Mr. Morgan seldom comes to town, but being a loyal democrat, could not afford to miss a chance to cast another vote for our great President, Wilson.

Several of our good citizens subscribed for the Sentinel Monday. Did you? We are going to do our best to give you a good newsy paper—if the people want it. If they do, they can easily let it be known by subscribing now.

D. H. Morgan, of Cookeville, attended criminal court Monday.

George Barksdale, of Celina, was here first of the week on business.

Clay Draper, of Hartsville, was transacting business here Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Rogers, of Nashville, was the guest of friends and relatives in Gainesboro this week.

H. M. Haile and wife, of Flynn's Lick, spent Sunday with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Settle.

Rev. Van Smith, of Buffalo Valley, was in Gainesboro Saturday enroute to Whitleyville, where he delivered two interesting sermons Sunday.

Jas. B. Chaffin, of Cookeville, was here Monday. Mr. Chaffin recently returned from Kentucky where he has been for several months. He is assisting W. B. Loftis, the leading groceryman of Cookeville.

No necessity of paying that bill the second time. Keep your money in this bank and pay bills by check—you have a record of the transaction and a legal receipt for payment made.—Bank of Gainesboro.

Mrs. J. W. Stamps, of Cookeville, and Mrs. J. M. Summers, of Hendersonville, attended the funeral of their father, David Loftis, Saturday, who died Friday night. They remained over several days, returning home Tuesday.

Mrs. W. H. Settle and daughter Mary, left Tuesday for Smiths Grove Ky., in response to a telegram, stating that Mrs. Settle's daughter, Mrs. Annie Davis, was dangerously ill. Mrs. Davis was operated on at Louisville, Ky., Wednesday for appendicitis. She is doing nicely.

Dave Egan, of Nashville, passed through here Thursday, enroute to Celina.

Dr. H. L. Baugh, of Flynn's Lick, was here this week on business.

Send in your subscription by mail. One dollar gets it a year, just think, hardly 2 cents a week.

Mrs. B. C. Butler is with her father, Dr. Z. M. Young at Lafayette. He is critical ill, and and his recovery is doubtful.

Do you think that the good old county of Jackson, needs, and is entitled to a good live newspaper? If you do, why not subscribe for it now. We do the rest.

Man past 30 with horse and buggy to sell Stock Condition Powder In Jackson County. Salary $70 per month. Address 9 Industrial Bldg., Indianapolis Indiana. Indianapolis, Indiana.

Several of the younger set, of Granville, attended the speaking Monday, and stayed over-night and took in the Gayety Theatre. The Gayety is putting on good shows, first class stuff and well worth the price of admission.

J. M. Johnson, of Flynn's Lick was a pleasant caller at the Sentinel office Monday. He paid for three, six months subscriptions, for which we are thankful. Let other good citizens follow his example.

Criminal court convened Monday. General Butler was elected Judge, and after empaneling the Grand Jury, and other necessary business, adjourned until Wednesday morning, on account of the election.

Hon. James B. Frazier spoke here Monday to a very large enthusiastic crowd. Ex-Senator Frazier is one of the ablest speakers in the state, and had no trouble in holding the crowd for something like two hours, every section of the county being represented.

Miss Annie Rooney Robbins underwent an operation at Trinity Hospital, Nashville, Saturday Nov. 4th, for appendicitis. The operation was successful, and she will be able to return home in ten days. Miss Robbins is nurse in the Tuberculosis Hospital, where she has been during the past year.

F. M. Anderson, the local ferryman, has contracted with Cohn & Goldberg, Nashville, for a new first class ferry boat. The boat will be 51 feet in length and 16 feet wide, and will cost $1000. It will be in commission by January 1, 1917. Mr. Anderson is to be congratulated on this progressive step. The new boat will permit him to accommodate the traveling public much better.

W. S. Jackson, of Cookeville, was in Gainesboro this week attending criminal court. Mr. Jackson moved to Cookeville two months ago. We regret to lose him from the county, and hope he will return some day. He served four years as trustee, filling the office to the satisfaction of every tax payer and citizen. His many friends in Jackson county wish him and esteemed family success in their new home.

The Sentinel is published in the interest of every citizen in Jackson county, and we want them to feel that it is their paper. Help us to make it the best country newspaper published in Tennessee. This can be done by subscribing at once and getting your neighbor to do likewise. You can further help by sending in items of news, especially when anything of importance happens. If you have a relative or friend out of the county, who would like to read the Sentinel, subscribe for them. Do it now—don't wait.

Hotel and Stable For SALE

The largest and best hotel in Gainesboro for sale on easy terms.

This hotel is located on the Southeast corner of the public square, convenient to all business houses.

It has 20 large, airy rooms, and the only drummer's sample room in the city.

A big underground cistern furnishes a sufficient amount of fine water for purposes.

There is a big barn, suitable for Feed or Livery purposes, belonging to the hotel, which will be included in the sale.

This is the "Aunt" Polly Williams Hotel property, and would not be sold, but for the fact that she is getting old and desires to retire from business.

Any one desiring the best hotel property in a thriving town, will do well to investigate this offer.

Terms of sale: 1-3 cash balance in 1, 2 and 3 years.

For further information, call or address,

B. L. QUARLES,
Gainesboro, Tenn.

ADMINISTRATOR'S - SALE -

I Will Sell To The Highest Bidder On SATURDAY, NOV. 18, 1916

all the personal estate of J. K. P. Cooper, deceased, at his late residence in Smith county, near Dixon Springs, Tenn., consisting of several head of horses, mules, cattle of all kinds, stock hogs and fat hogs, tobacco, farming implements, including good farm wagon, new mower, rake, household and kitchen furniture, etc.

TERMS OF SALE: All sales which amount to $5.00 and under will be made for cash, and all sales amounting to more than $5.00 will be made on six month's time, taking notes with good sureties, with interest from date of sale.

All persons indebted to said estate are requested to come forward immediately and make payment, and those having claims against it are hereby notified to present them within the time required by law.

This Nov. 4th, 1916.

W. T. COOPER, Adm'r.

Mr. Business Man!

Keep your money at HOME. Let the Sentinel do your Job Work. All work GUARANTEED.

Prince Albert gives smokers such delight, because

- its flavor is so different and so delightfully good;
- it can't bite your tongue;
- it can't parch your throat;
- you can smoke it as long and as hard as you like without any comeback but real tobacco happiness!

On the reverse side of every Prince Albert package you will read:

"PROCESS PATENTED JULY 30th, 1907"

That means to you a lot of tobacco enjoyment. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke

in goodness and in pipe satisfaction is all we or its enthusiastic friends ever claimed for it!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

Will you invest 5c or 10c to prove out our say-so on the national joy smoke?

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

This is the reverse side of the Prince Albert tin. Read this "Patented Process" message-to-you and realize what it means in making Prince Albert so much to your liking.